

VICKY M. BELL

PARALEGAL

Vicky M. Bell is a paralegal in Trainor Fairbrook's litigation department who is dedicated to being proactive and exceeding expectations with quality work product. She excels in creating litigation readiness systems and assists attorneys with all phases of litigation, including discovery, motions and preparation for trials and arbitrations. In addition to general litigation and trial support, Vicky focuses on learning new technologies for trials and litigation, thereby ensuring the attorneys of the firm have the most up-to-date methods in place to serve our clients. She is also responsible for the electronic presentation of evidence at trials and arbitrations. Vicky has served clients on over two dozen trials and arbitrations.
